WELCOME TO

The Cock Inn is the ideal venue for your next event or celebration.

Situated in North London's Cockfosters, it has been a thriving part of the community since it's opening in 1798.

Cockfosters is on the outskirts of North London, giving you the perfect balance between beautiful open spaces, such as our neighbouring Trent Park, and links straight in to Central London - the best place to continue the party well in to the night!

The beautiful pub brings together elements of traditional charm and contemporary décor to allow you and your guests to relax in truly special surroundings. With a large and stylish bar and intimate restaurant we can provide the ideal setting for any occasion.

The Cock Inn's spacious bar is brimming with atmosphere. It provides the perfect location for a glass of wine, or a warming cup of tea after a morning stroll in Trent Park with the dogs.

The beautifully decorated restaurant is the perfect place for a special family meal. During the summer months, why not indulge with the whole family in a spot of al fresco dining in our large garden - a utopia away from the hustle and bustle of the high street. Relax on our spacious decking, or unwind on the spacious lawn in the sunshine, cider in hand.

Our stunning building, great location, warm hospitality and delicious freshly prepared menus will mean that any event at The Cock Inn is one to remember.

We are a family friendly establishment, so please feel free to bring your little ones along. There is also plenty of car parking available, as well as free Wi-Fi if you need to stay connected during your visit.
